Itinerary

DAY
1

Arrival in Husum

Perhaps you have time to visit the Castle of Husum and the historic city centre of the "gray city by the sea," as the poet Theodor Storm called it.

2

Husum – Island of Föhr

| approx. 45-55 km + boat trip

Follow the route through the North Frisian coastal landscape, past Bredstedt, and to Dagebüll. In the afternoon, take the ferry (incl.) to the island of Föhr.

3

Island of Föhr, Round Tour

| approx. 40 km

Explore the luscious green island in North Frisia. Once you leave the capital city of Wyk, there is nothing but peace and tranquillity as far as the eye can see

4

Island Föhr – Island Amrum

| approx. 30 km + boat trip

Enjoy the island of Amrum today. The sandbank is over 1 km / 1.6 mi wide and is one of the most awesome beaches on Germany's North Sea coast. Frisian houses dot the landscape of meadows, wide dune landscape, Frisian houses, sand dunes, forest, and heath.

5

Island of Hallig Loop Tour

| + boat trip

Boat trip from Marum to Hallig Hooge without bike (incl., not possible on monday). You will visit Hallig Hooge today with its typical terps and settlement hills which keeps the inhabitants safe during floods. There is also the "Friesenstube Königspesel" in which the Danish King Friedrich VI stayed overnight long time ago.

DAY
6*Amrum – Bredstedt – Husum*

approx. 55 km + boat trip

By ferry (incl.) from Amrum to Dagebüll, continue by bike along the dikes to the North Frisian Bredstedt, the geographical centre of North Frisia. Continue to Husum.

DAY
7*Departure or extension*

Individual Departure or the possibility to extend your trip.

Tour character

Easy bike tour. You are cycling on flat well reconstructed cycle paths.
