

Tauern Cycle Path, Krimml - Passau

FROM KRIMML VIA SALZBURG TO PASSAU.

The Tauern Cycle Path is one of the most popular cycle tours in Austria – and there's good reason. There are so many great things about the 315km-long cycle path. There is the consistent and very detailed signage that will guide you from Krimml to Passau. The first-class path quality without noticeable hills also makes the Tauern Cycle Path so popular. Last but not least, the supporting actors that crown the cycling holiday. Nature, culture and cuisine offer exciting hours off the cycle paths.

Details about cycling holidays on the Tauern Cycle Path

There are 750 vertical metres between Krimml and Passau – but gently down! The slight downhill always gives a bit of a tailwind and makes the cycle path easy to ride. After the daily stages there is still enough time for sightseeing and discovery tours along the way. Ten days of pure cycling enjoyment without luggage – that's the service from Eurobike!

The highlights of the Tauern Cycle Path at a glance:

- A cycle path for the whole family: In the gentle valleys of the Salzach, the Saalach and the Inn it is mostly downhill and on well-signposted cycle paths. Therefore, this cycling holiday is also suitable for beginners and families with children.
- Natural spectacles: Whether it's the Krimml waterfalls, the mighty three-thousand metre peaks in the background or the Seisenberg gorge – nature shows off along the Tauern Cycle Path!
- Small cities and great history: Salzburg, the city of Mozart, Burghausen with the longest castle in Europe and the three-river city of Passau offer culture and culinary delights for every taste.

Useful information about cycling holidays for the whole family

You start at the official start of the Tauern Cycle Path and your own journey to Krimml. A visit to the Krimml waterfalls, the largest in Europe, should definitely be on your excursion list! For the next nine days you head northeast, pedal by pedal. You cover between 40 and 60 kilometres a day until you finally reach your destination, the charming border town of Passau.

Tip: This cycle tour from Eurobike can also be booked as a 'cycling with charm' variant. The hotels are selected with special care and impress with a top location and a certain flair.
