

Tauern-Cycle Path for families

CYCLING THROUGH ALPINE SCENERY TO SALZBURG.

The Salzach and the Saalach run their course through the flat valley between the impressive Hohen Tauern mountains and the district of Salzburg. The river is a great place for families to cycle and it is also very diverse. You can visit the Krimmler waterfalls (the highest in Europe) and can go along the Salzach and Saalach past lush green meadows and snow covered mountains until you reach Salzburg, the festival city. The pleasant stages are ideal for families, who would like to go on a cycling holiday for the first time but also offer more experienced cyclists time to explore other things in addition to doing the cycling tour. It is good to have excess time though because in almost every place you go past there is a natural lake, a pool or a free time park to play and splash around in. A bit of time should also be used to explore the nature along the way on route or to go to the 'Hohe Tauern' national park centre. Stop off along the way at some of the excellent guest houses and enjoy the Austrian food like 'Pinzgauer Kasnocken', 'Kaspressknödel' and 'Salzburger Nockerl'. Whether it be the food, the culture or the nature: you are bound to be charmed by this cycle tour along the Tauern cycle path!
