Danube Cycle Path sporty

AS YOU LIKE IT.

This tour, which starts in the three-river city of Passau and leads to beautiful Vienna, is quite something - in many respects. You cycle the 330 km route at a sporty pace over five days. The stage destinations are a string of highlights that combine nature and cities, culture and action as well as culinary delights and enjoyment. So what are you waiting for?

Details of the cycle tour from Schärding/Passau to Vienna

Choose between Schärding and Passau for your first overnight stay - don't worry, there's no right or wrong here, as both towns are real gems. The first stage takes you to the Upper Austrian capital of Linz. Let yourself be inspired by art and culture, stroll through the old town and, to compensate, take the Pöstlingbergbahn up to Linz's local mountain, where a breathtaking view awaits.

On day 3, it's worth focusing on architecture and history, as you pass the Celtic village of Mitterkirchen, the baroque town of Grein, the Maria Taferl Basilica and the imposing Melk Abbey, among others. Take another deep breath before the final stage through the lovely Wachau region to the vibrant metropolis of Vienna. Why not plan an extension, the Austrian capital has endless things to offer!

Highlights of the cycling tour with Eurobike

- The confluence of the Inn, Ilz and Danube rivers is the reason the beautiful three-river city is known as such. If you want to take a hike to the Veste Oberhaus, you will be rewarded with an impressive view. For you can see exactly how the green Inn and the black Ilz flow into the blue Danube.
- The natural spectacle Schlögener Schlinge: On the ferry ride to the accommodation you can get a great picture of the unique 180-degree turn of the Danube. The granite-rich land literally did not allow the Danube to pass, so it had to turn.

- Juicy apricots in the Wachau: The particularly mild climate of the Wachau offers apricots and grapes the perfect growing conditions. This allows their aroma to unfold in a perfect way - be sure to taste your way through the numerous delicacies!
- The feudal Ringstrasse in Vienna: Whether it's the State Opera House, the Hofburg Palace or the Votive Church - if you want to explore the city's historical sights, all you have to do is walk along the Ring and one architectural masterpiece follows the next. Tip: Hop on the "Vienna Ring Tram" and explore the street in comfort from the tram.

Useful information about the tour with Eurobike

On this tour you will walk in the historical footsteps of the Celts, Nibelungs and Romans, who used the Danube as a transport and trade route. Today, the well-maintained Danube Cycle Path winds alongside it. For the 95 to 115 km long stages of this tour, you should be in good shape and have cycling experience.
