Enns Cycle Path

BACK TO NATURE.

A cycle tour with exciting nature experience: First the Enns is a small stream, which curls through the Styrian Ennstal Valley. In the Gesäuse national park the thunderous water force through canyons and offers in the Kalkalpen national park a green ribbon. In Steyr the river Steyr and the Enns unify them and flows in the direction of the Danube in an unhurried way.

Diversified, scenic and cultural – the Enns bike path! Romantic canyons, picturesque villages, beautiful mountains and lonesome paths at the boarder of two national parks are awaiting you.

Itinerary

DAY
1

Arrival in Radstadt

Arrival as arranged by you. Check-in to your accommodation, and get your travel documents. Take time for a short walk in Radstadt - "the old city in the mountains".

Radstadt – Gröbming | approx. 45 km

Follow the still narrow River Enns to Styria and marvel at the breath taking Dachstein South Wall, before you arrive in the ski world cup town Schladming. After a short, ascent you continue through the Valley till you arrive to Gröbming.

Gröbming – Admont | approx. 55 km

You cycle comfortable through the broad valley. From a distance the edged mountain-prongs of the mountain range Gesäuse salutes. In Admont you have the possibility to visit the biggest monastery library of the world.

Admont – St. Gallen | approx. 55 km

It becomes close. The Enns flows with the skittish "Gesäuse" through the national park. The canyon (20 km) is one of the most phenomenal Austrian nature spectacles. Afterwards you cycle via Weng and Buchauer Saddle to St. Gallen.

St. Gallen – Großraming | approx. 45 km

The impressive Gallenstein castle waves you goodbye as you head off into Upper Austria. The amazing forested mountains frame the Kalkalpen national park. Endangered species like lynx and eagles are native here. For the 19 km/500 hm ascent from St. Gallen to the Mooshöhe, take the included bus shuttle.

DAY
6*Großraming – Steyr*

approx. 40 km

In the years the Enns was a concernment for the iron trade. With brails they shipped the raw ore the craftsman for knives and so called Feitel (a special clasp knife). There are a lot of museums which makes this come alive.

DAY
7*Steyr – Linz*

approx. 50 km

Because of the confluence with the river Steyr the Enns sedate to a handsome stream, which pass sedately the same-named town. Enns is own of the oldest towns in Austria, which was still settled by the Celts and Romans. The museum Lauriacum represent this era. Along the Danube bike path to Linz, provincial capital of Upper Austria.

DAY
8*Departure or extension*

Tour character

You have to manage some (partly steep) ascents. On some parts of the route you have to bike on streets with more traffic. This particular bike tour is of medium difficulty. With normal fitness condition we guarantee a unique bike-experience.
