Starnberger See, Osterseen, Riegsee, Staffelsee, Kochelsee - you should not miss the numerous opportunities to enjoy the cool water in the south of Munich. Soak your feet in the water and unwind before exploring the charming towns on the tour. In Murnau and Bad Tölz, experience at the past and the lived traditions, but above all at the warmth of the people.

Highlights of the 8-day tour "Munich Lakes"

- The idyllic Lake Starnberg: The lakeside promenade in Starnberg, the Sissi Museum in Possenhofen or the Castle Gardens - the sophisticated lake has plenty of beautiful destinations to offer. Alternatively, you can find a spot on the shore and let your eyes look over the landscape - how good is that!
- The decorated market square in Murnau is a real feast for the eyes. The town is considered a place of art, where studios and galleries still line up today. Next to them, cafés invite you to linger, sample pastries and people-watch. A stroll through the owner-operated boutiques of the town is also recommended.
- The Lüftmalerei in Bad Tölz: This type of façade painting originated mainly between Augsburg and Venice, one of the most important trade routes of the 18th century. The colourfully painted houses on the market square in Bad Tölz are considered a special attraction.

- The English Garden in Munich is an oasis of relaxation in the middle of the big city, with an international flair: the Japanese Tea House, the Chinese Tower or "California Feeling" with the surfers at the Eisbach.
