Itinerary

DAY
1

Arrival in Bullay

The charming Moselle village of Bullay with its numerous traditional inns and the lovely ‚Brautrock‘-fountain situated at the Lindenplatz square invites you to a leisurely stroll.

Hotel example: Feriendomizil am Lindenplatz

2

Circular Walk Bullay

Short train ride through the tunnel to Reil. You walk across vineyards enjoying a spectacular view onto Germany's longest slope-viaduct and the river loops further below. At the lookout tower at the Prinzenkopf you can enjoy glances into the distance. Here the area between the Moselle river loops is only a few hundred metres wide, you nearly feel like you are on an island. Past the Marienburg castle you are headed downhill again and via the double-decked bridge back to Bullay.

Tour character

You mostly hike on nice hiking paths and trails, on gravelled vineyard paths and remote forest paths. The paths with great views lead in parts across steep terrain and rocks, here surefootedness is required. The ascents and descents of the mountain chains of the Moseltal-valley are easily manageable with a good basic fitness level. The stages can be comfortably cut short anytime by train.
