Majorca Finca-Walking with Charm

THE MOST BEAUTIFUL ROUTES OF MALLORCA.

A perfect hiking holiday for two: exploring the most beautiful trails on the Mediterranean island. Faraway from the party hotspots the island has so much more to offer. In a quiet location, where one stylish Finca follows another and most of them have a pool in the garden where you can take a dip after hiking. A holiday on the sunny island can be so beautiful.

Details of Finca-walking in Mallorca

Mallorca exudes a very special flair that you will feel in many places, whether on the peninsula La Victòria with its turquoise bay Coll Baix, or the Orient Valley with its lush fruit groves or the artist's village Deia. Let the Mediterranean beauty fill your eyes and enjoy every breath of the healthy sea air.

Highlights of the hiking tour in Mallorca

- Coastal walks with captivating panoramas: On the Penyal d'Honor you have the best view of the beautiful landscape of Mallorca.
- Delicious oranges and olives: Be sure to try the delicious Mediterranean fruits from Sóller and the Orient Valley!
- Stay in secluded Fincas with a pool: During the hiking holiday you will stay in a comfortable, and stylish country-style Finca.

Useful information about the island hike in Mallorca

Every step is worthwhile during the six-day hiking trip on the paradise island of Mallorca. You start in Pollença and take a detour to Alcúdia before returning to the Cuber reservoir. The path continues through the sleepy villages of the Serra de Tramuntana and past the estate Coma Sema. Enjoy typical Mallorcan cuisine and gather strength for the next day. Because the hike continues into the Orient Valley, which is known as the 'Orchard of the island' for a reason. You will also pass the pilgrimage site of Castell d'Alaró. From the summit of Penyal d'Honor you have magnificent view over the entire island. The last stage of the hiking holiday is the artist's village of Deia. Finally, you will reach Sóller via the charming post office and explore an old mill. For a hiking trip without luggage, no great hiking experience is necessary. For one of the small climbs some basic fitness is advantageous.
